Amrita Sher-Gil Cultural Centre Hosts Joyous Christmas Celebration

(19 December 2025) The Amrita Sher-Gil Cultural Centre of the Embassy in Budapest hosted a heartwarming and joyous Christmas celebration, bringing together Hungarian friends of India, distinguished guests, members of the Indian community and members from media in an atmosphere filled with warmth, goodwill, and festive cheer.

The celebration was graced by the presence of H.E. Mr. Anshuman Gaur, the Ambassador of India to Hungary, who delivered an inspiring message reflecting on the universal significance of Christmas. The Ambassador emphasized the enduring values of peace, love, compassion, and unity that the season embodies, reminding everyone of the importance of shared humanity and harmony across cultures.

The evening was further illuminated by a captivating cultural programme featuring thoughtfully curated performances that beautifully reflected the spirit of the festive season. The mesmerizing presentations enthralled the audience and added vibrancy and joy to the celebration.

Guests were also treated to a delightful spread of festive cuisine, offering a rich blend of traditional flavors and seasonal delicacies.

The event concluded in a warm and cheerful ambiance, leaving guests with fond memories and a renewed sense of connection, truly capturing the essence of Christmas as a time for joy, reflection, and unity.
